"Remedial class"

27/06/2023 (Tuesday)

Today, on 27/06/2023 (Tuesday), a "Remedial class" was organized on the topic "mechanism of heredity" at KN Bakshi College of Education, Karmatand. In which today's class was conducted by college teacher Dr. Rajesh Ravidas. Dr. Rajesh Ravidas explained the "mechanism of heredity" in detail to the students. He explained that the transmission of qualities of parents and other ancestors to their children is called heredity. The laws of inheritance determine the pattern of inheritance in all living organisms. The main objective of today's class was to explain it to those students who could not understand the topic well in the previous class.

outcome :- At the end of the class feedback was taken from all the students in which the students said that they had understood today's content very well.
